1. I am a United States Border Patrol Agent with the United States Department of Homeland Security, United States Border Patrol. I have been employed in this capacity since December 14, 2009. The facts set forth herein are based upon my personal knowledge as well as information provided by other law enforcement officers to include Border Patrol agents and records checks of law enforcement databases. 13. On August 11, 2016, NAVARRO-CHAIRES was encountered by the Shelby Township, Michigan Police Department. According to police reports, NAVARRO-CHAIRES assaulted his girlfriend while she was in her vehicle, by striking her and grabbing her arm while she was driving. He grabbed her by the neck and tried to choke her. He also threatened to post pictures of her on-line that he had on his cell phone. The victim had visible injuries. 21. On September 27, 2018, NAVARRO-CHAIRES was convicted in the Eastern District of Michigan for a violation of Title 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a), Unlawful Re-Entry. NAVARRO-CHAIRES was sentenced to time served (81 days) and one-year supervised release, non-reporting.
22. On or about October 17, 2018, NAVARRO-CHAIRES was removed from the United States to Mexico via the Hidalgo, Texas, Port of Entry.

NAVARRO-CHAIRES falsely claimed that he had paperwork which allowed him to legally be in the United States and produced a Notice of Action/Receipt for an asylum claim he filed in July 2024. His action in filing the claim for asylum does not give him status to be in the United States. Because NAVARRO-CHAIRES is not legally in the United States, his prior order of removal was reinstated.

27. During his post-detention interview with immigration agents, NAVARRO-CHAIRES claimed he entered the United States illegally sometime in 2023 by walking to Michigan from the southern border. He reports that he has three minor U.S. citizen children, who reside with their mother in Mount Clemens, MI.

28. Review of the alien file (A# xxx xxx 596) for NAVARRO-CHAIRES, and queries in U.S. Border Patrol computer databases confirm no record exists of NAVARRO-CHAIRES obtaining the express permission from the Attorney General or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security to re-enter the United States following his last departure on January 13, 2020.

29. Based on the above information, I believe there is probable cause to conclude that Joel NAVARRO-CHAIRES, is an alien who was previously convicted of a felony offense and was found in the United States after removal, without the express permission from the Attorney General of the United States or from the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security to re-apply for admission into the United States in violation of Title 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a), (b)(1).
